TUESDAY TIDBITS - October 8, 2019

Well it looks like autumn is finally coming to the Mid-Atlantic. Being raised a California girl, it surprised me just how much I have enjoyed settling into Maryland. I came across an article the other day that listed the top 10 spots in America that are known for perfect weather. It's no surprise California made that list. Although I have to admit that California weather is heavenly, I have come to love the change in seasons that we enjoy now. Not only for the variety, but also because each season brings with it an energy and newness that seems to invigorate me.

Take a minute and check out the seasons that are reflected in some of our teams work. I am sure some of your customers share the enjoyment that the seasons bring, whether it's where they live or what they buy.
