It's all about... Home

In this most unusual time we are in, we find our thoughts being turned toward home. It is where we work, where we learn, and simply where we stay safe. I have created this charming collection of 16 colorful, pot belly houses along with original sayings about "home" that are reflective of our current times and what some may perceive as our new normal.

All Houses With Sayings

"We all get bogged down with our normal everyday responsibilities, obligations which are often followed by nevgative self-talk - and that includes me! I developed this art as colorful little reminders helping women to surround themselves with positivity and joy, and celebrate their unique contribution to the world."
