

Haunting Halloween, Traditional Harvest and lots of Winter Fun!

© SHARON LEE

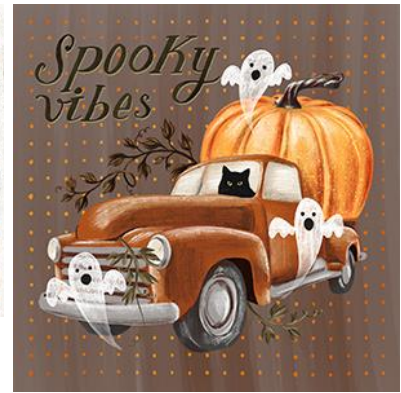

This week we are taking a break from our Artist Series to share some fun, new, and timely images that the artists have available for your Fall and Winter needs,

Wow, where did the summer go? I know some of you still have 100-degree weather, but the calendar tells me things are starting to change. I am getting blasted with school bulletins, and requests for specific supplies from my teenager. I was deep into enjoying the summer, but off we go into the fall and the end of the year. One minute, you are in your bathing suit enjoying a drink, and suddenly someone is asking about Halloween decorations. One of my neighbors has even sprinkled his yard with ghosts and goblins already.

Just remember there is still a lot of life left in 2022. Keep cool and let me know if you see you just have to have.
